

MUNYON'S FIRST WEEK

IN HIS NEW OFFICE.

Crowds of People

Many Turned Away Unable To Get In.

THIS SHALL NOT OCCUR AGAIN

His Staff of Physicians Has Been Increased.

And All Shall Be Attended To Promptly Who Desire His Services in the Office or at their Homes.

Send a Postal Card for a Doctor If You Cannot Come to the Office.

NO CHARGE WHATEVER.

MUNYON'S Office is for the benefit of all the Sick. Let all use it freely.

MUNYON'S REMEDIES cannot be imitated; his methods may be.

A whole column in the paper could not tell the story of Munyon's success in Indianapolis so eloquently as one hour spent in his office in the Majestic building.

The wonderful experience of his cured patients and of those now under treatment would read like a romance if written in their own words. More than half of the callers come because of their knowledge of some friend or neighbor who has been cured by his wonderful medicines. All classes of society are there—preachers, lawyers, merchants, bankers, mechanics and wage earners from every field of labor. They come because Munyon's Remedies have been proven to represent the very highest achievements of medical science. They are not looking for charity, but for the best service that can be obtained. They want to be cured.

If you are sick waste no time in doubtful experiments; go at once to Munyon's office and get the best. No charge will be made in any case for the Doctor's services either at his office or at your homes. Free service is a part of the Munyon system and originated with Professor Munyon.

No matter what the disease is or how many doctors have failed to cure you, a visit to these eminent specialists will cost you nothing and may save your life. RHEUMATISM often cured in a few hours.

DYSPEPSIA radically cured in a few days.

CATARH—Permanent cures made in a few weeks and other diseases in very short time.

All this sounds like the age of miracles, but it is all realized under the Munyon system of curing disease.

PROVE IT FOR YOURSELVES.

Majestic Block,
(Cor. Pennsylvania and Maryland Streets.)
Hours 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.
Sundays, 10 a. m. to 12 m.

Big 4 Route

TIME CARD NOV. 1, 1896.

Trains leave Indianapolis Union Station as follows:

	A. M. TRAINS.	P. M. TRAINS.
Cleveland & Buffalo.	4:15	10:25
New York & Boston.	4:15	10:25
Columbus.	4:15	10:25
Dayton.	4:15	10:25
Syracuse.	4:15	10:25
Shelbyville & Greensburg.	4:15	10:25
Cincinnati.	4:15	10:25
Adrian & Chicago.	4:15	10:25
Louisville.	4:15	10:25
Terre Haute & Evansville.	4:15	10:25
St. Louis.	4:15	10:25
Danville & Chicago.	4:15	10:25
Bloomington & Chicago.	4:15	10:25
Lafayette.	4:15	10:25
Chicago.	4:15	10:25
Marion & Warsaw.	4:15	10:25
Greensburg & Chicago.	4:15	10:25
Benton Harbor.	4:15	10:25
Anderson.	4:15	10:25
Adrian & Chicago.	4:15	10:25
Muncie & Union City.	4:15	10:25

* Indicates Daily.

H. M. BRONSON,
Assistant General Passenger Agent.

C., H. & D. RY.

BEST LINE TO
CINCINNATI
Dayton, Toledo and Detroit.

LEAVE INDIANAPOLIS.

Cincinnati Vestibule, daily..... 3:40 am
Cincinnati Fast Mail, daily..... 7:25 am
Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo and Detroit Express, except Saturdays..... 10:45 am
Cincinnati Fast Express, daily..... 2:45 pm
Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo and Detroit, daily..... 7:00 pm

ARRIVE INDIANAPOLIS.

Lafayette, 6:55 am; 11:45 am; 3:25 pm; 7:50 pm; 10:40 pm.

For further information call at No. 2 West Washington street or Union Station.
GEO. W. HAYLER, D. P. A.

MONON ROUTE
Louisville, New Albany & Chicago Railway.

SHORT LINE TO
CHICAGO THE WEST
AND NORTHWEST

Pullman Vestibule Train Service.

Trains daily at 7:00 a. m., 3:35 p. m. and 7:50 p. m.
Arrive Chicago 12:00 noon, 5:20 p. m. and 7:50 p. m.
Leave Chicago daily 2:45 a. m., 11:50 a. m. and 8:25 p. m.
Arrive Indianapolis 7:45 a. m., 4:27 p. m. and 1:30 a. m.
Chicago Sleeper at west end Union Station, leaving at 3:30.

For further information at Union Station and No. 2 W. Wash. St. GEO. W. HAYLER, D. P. A.

ALL NEXT WEEK ONLY

Call and examine the full line of Gordon & Dilworth's

TABLE LUXURIES

Orders taken and shipped direct from factory at special prices.

POWER & DRAKE

Distributors of Fine Imported and Domestic Groceries.

16 North Meridian Street.

ABSTRACT OF TITLES.

THEODORE STEIN,
ABSTRACTOR OF TITLES

Corner Market and Pennsylvania streets, Indianapolis. Suite 23, First Office, Phone 100.

Light snow; clearing weather.

An era of Prosperity is in sight

It's dawn already begins to dispel the clouds of adversity, and while the full noonday of revival cannot instantly be made to appear, yet it is certain from the hum of revived industries heard throughout the land that the darkest hours of depression, idleness and gloom are past.

It is a time for rejoicing

THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE WHEN VESTIBULE GOOD TIMES

As We Enter the

ARE A Large Assortment of

Boys' Cassimere Suits

Which Go Into Our

1-2 Off Sale THIS WEEK

Mostly $10 and $12 Suits which you buy at just half the marked price. There are a dozen or more styles to select from.

WHEELMEN

Can buy some Astrachan Reefers, very warm, at 1-2

Their value. There are two lots, at $13.50 and $15. respectively, cut the price in two in the middle and take them.

The Overcoat Sale at 1-2 off Is Attracting An Immense Trade

In Our Hat Department 1-2 off Is Attracting An Immense Trade

The Suit Sale At 1-2 off Is Attracting An Immense Trade

Dull Times Prices

All lapping over into booming trade times, but we have no desire to check it, and continue to sell our

$4.00 soft or stiff Hat for..... $3.00

$3.50 soft or stiff Hat for..... 2.50

$3.00 soft or stiff Hat for..... 1.97

$2.50 soft or stiff Hat for..... 1.47

$1.50 soft or stiff Hat for..... .97

All new and the latest shapes in

When Quality

KEN ROCKY ALL NIGHT

OFFICIAL RETURNS INCREASING THE REPUBLICAN PLURALITY.

Count Made by the Louisville Canvassing Board Shows Good Gains for the Sound-Money Electors.

M'KINLEY 456 VOTES AHEAD

BARE POSSIBILITY THAT ONE BRYANITE WILL PULL THROUGH.

One of the Popocratic Electors Successful in Delaware, Owing to a Blunder in a Republican's Name.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.—Official returns are now in from all but eight counties, and McKinley's net plurality is raised to 456. The official returns from Greenup county are but three less than the unofficial, but to the official canvass of the Tenth and Eleventh wards of Louisville is the handsome gain of the Ohio man due this afternoon. By the official count McKinley makes a net gain of 122 votes. There remains yet one ward, the Twelfth, to be canvassed, and that will be completed to-night. It is expected that this will also show up with a material McKinley gain, as every ward so far canvassed has had this result. Other official returns from the State are not expected to affect the general result, for the reports from the two unofficially reported counties that have been received are considered reliable by both Republicans and Democrats. Thus if any change at all is made it will not be sufficient to overcome the 456 lead of McKinley, and his victory in the State is now practically conceded, even though it is by the narrowest margin that ever characterized a State's vote in a presidential year.

To-night brings no material changes in the situation. The Democratic headquarters give out no detailed figures to substantiate their claims of carrying the State for Bryan, while the Republican managers bolster their assertions of success with tables embodying the majority of each candidate in all of the several counties and districts. A call at Democratic headquarters to-night found a sign reading "These headquarters closed." None of the committee men could be found for a statement. The following is from Republican Chairman Roberts:

"Kentucky has gone Republican for the first time in its history. Complete official returns from 111 counties and reliable unofficial returns from the other eight counties give McKinley 456 plurality. Four years ago the State gave Cleveland 46,000 plurality over Harrison, and gave Weaver, the Populist candidate, 2,500 votes. The fusion of Democrats and Populists this year was complete, and the victory for McKinley means, therefore, a reversal of 46,000 votes based on the figures of 1892.

"Earlier friends made a great ado over 2,000 Republican gain in the Eleventh district, but see nothing remarkable in a gain of 2,000 Democratic plurality in a single county in the Fifth district. They also affect a surprise that the Republican State committee has been elected by a slim margin of 400 to 500 plurality for McKinley in spite of the discovery of great errors against Bryan in Cardwell, Callaway and other counties, and say that whenever Bryan made a gain in this way I sent a cipher to the hands of the Louisville Courier-Journal, and responding addition to the McKinley plurality. These errors, which the newspapers gave McKinley anywhere from 2,000 to 3,000 plurality when the committee figures, open to the world, stood between 400 and 500 for free days.

"At 5 o'clock on the morning after election we realized that the result would be very close and wired to every county chairman who could be reached to rush complete unofficial returns, and to closely watch the official canvass. The results of the answers to these messages I issued a bulletin Wednesday evening, which was published in all the Louisville papers, and among other things: 'The Democrats will go to the Eleventh district with 13,600 in their favor, and will carry the State by a margin of 1,000 votes. This bulletin was based on actual unofficial figures from every county, but from last Wednesday until today in spite of the errors of Democratic correspondents, and the surprising claims of free-silver leaders, evidently based on before-the-election estimates rather than after the election returns. This committee has had nothing to do with the conflicting reports of newspapers, and the big gains and losses they have been finding in unofficial returns for several days have not changed our tables at any time. The official canvass has suited in occasional changes from our unofficial figures, but they have about balanced each other and my Wednesday figures are practically confirmed by the official count.

"At this writing our almost complete returns show that the Democrats go to the Eleventh district with 13,322 plurality in their favor and are met there by 14,200 Republican plurality, giving a net plurality of 456 for McKinley."

"SAMUEL J. ROBERTS, Chairman."

The Louisville Courier-Journal this morning says: "A complication has arisen that will likely decide the electoral vote on the basis of twelve for McKinley and one for Bryan. This is due to the fact that a large number of the stencil mark opposite the name of the first elector instead of under the party device, thus causing the head of each ticket to run ahead of their colleagues. In this way the foremost Democratic elector, W. B. Smith, gets more votes than the hindmost Republican elector. Better on the Bryan side say this prevents the McKinley men from winning and raises an interesting point. However, all bets are held up until the State canvassing board's count. The most intense interest is manifested in the constantly changing figures, and the situation assumes a very ludicrous phase."

WOODSON STILL CRYING FRAUD.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 7.—National Committeeman Woodson returned home from Louisville to-night, and with reference to election frauds in the Kentucky mountain counties, mentioned in his statement last night, said: "I have received further proof of these frauds to-day by mail and wire. I have it on reliable authority that the Bryan men were sent from Louisville Wednesday to leading Republican counties of the Eleventh district that the Eleventh must come up with 14,000 majority or more to save Kentucky to McKinley. The majority claimed for the Eleventh district on Wednesday by the Republicans was only 11,511, and this corresponds with the reports sent the Democratic committee. On Thursday they raised it to 11,520, on Friday to 12,743, and on Saturday to 14,340 and seem to be prepared to furnish any majority necessary for election frauds. The official returns telegraphed to-day from these mountain counties, which have long been notorious for election frauds, the election machinery being in the hands of Republicans in every county, show extraordinary gains over the certified statements sent in the night after the day following the election. At the official count, in a number of these counties the Democratic county committee asked to be represented by an attorney, making their requests in writing, but they were denied this and locked out while the work went on. These irregular proceedings will be contested before the State canvassing board, and no effort will be spared to purge the count of fraudulent votes. But in no event can the Republican returning board count in all of the Republican counties."

Governor Bradley's Movements.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 7.—Governor Bradley left here to-day for the Midland road. All inquiry failed to get information of his destination. Rumor has it that he is on a trip investigating alleged election frauds. The Democratic ticket is elected, also suggested that he is looking after matters in reference to the election of a United States Senator from Kentucky.

BLUNDER IN DELAWARE.

Whereby One of the Electors Was Given to the Popocratic Party.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 7.—Although the Republicans carried Delaware by almost 4,000 for the head of the ticket, Major McKinley will receive but two of the three electors, unless the matter is taken into the courts. The result is due to the fact that the elector named in the Republican ticket was the name of "James G. Shaw, sr." In counting the ballots, the "Shaw" and "Shaw, jr." tickets were canvassed separately. By this division John H. Rodney, the highest candidate for elector, the Democratic ticket is elected, the vote standing: Shaw, 10,182; Shaw, sr., 10,208; Rodney, 15,881.

Wyoming Still in Doubt.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 7.—The Democratic committee announces the following as the result of advices received by it: McKinley electors—Brittain, 9,139; Howell, 9,101; Malloy, 9,077. Bryan electors—Van Meter, 9,100; Martin, 9,339; Queasley, 9,442. The committee has yet to hear from thirty precincts and all of the big iron counties. Chairman Blydenburg claims the precincts to be heard from will give a net national Democratic plurality of 1,000.

Senator Warren, chairman of the Republican State committee, says the face of the returns now indicate that one McKinley elector is assured and two McKinley electors are probably elected.

Taylor Barely Elected.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 7.—Returns of the gubernatorial election, official and unofficial, received by the Banner from all of the two counties, give Taylor, Dem., a majority of 2,575 against Johnson, Rep. The counties yet to be heard from gave Evans a majority of 345 in 1891, which, being subtracted from Taylor's apparent advantage, leaves the Democratic candidate only 2,230 votes more than his opponent.

Settle Will Contest.

WINSTON, N. C., Nov. 7.—It is stated to-day that Congressman Settle, Republican, of the Fifth district, has decided to contest the election of W. W. Kitchen, Democrat. The returns give the latter a majority of over 400. Settle claims that there were irregularities in Rockingham county.

"Counted Out, as Usual."

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 7.—Chairman Benjamin, of the county Republican committee, has received the following message from the Hon. Henry Clay Evans: "I am a Republican, but we expect to be counted out as usual."

South Dakota Safe for McKinley.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 7.—The Republican State and congressional tickets are assured of a majority in the electoral ticket to insure their success.

TALK WITH MR. HANNA

HE DISCUSSES THE POLICY OF PRESIDENT-ELECT M'KINLEY.

The Major Hopes to See a Great National Party—Congress to Be Called to Provide More Revenue.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The World this morning says: Mark Hanna gave the World the following outline of what he understood to be President-elect McKinley's general policy:

"I have had but comparatively brief conversations with Major McKinley since his election. Next week I expect to meet him at Cleveland, and as he has had time to think over matters, I presume he will have more details than I am at present aware of. But this much I know, he feels that he owes much to the patriotic Democrats who prefer principle to strict party ties. Indiana, for instance, was unquestionably carried against fusion by Democratic votes. He recognizes the very great service performed by Democratic and independent newspapers during the campaign.

"Major McKinley will endeavor to see collected a great national party that will give prosperity to the country. He expects and hopes the men of all shades to meet him on a platform of sound money, sound politics and belief will be united to this end. I have talked with some of the most influential of the Democratic leaders, and I am glad to say they are in accord with Major McKinley's hopes.

"The first movement he will make will be to obtain sufficient revenue to conduct the government. The raising of bonds would be altogether too dangerous. Business prosperity and stability demand that as soon as possible the government should be on a paying basis. To this end an extra session of Congress will be necessary and President McKinley will undoubtedly call one soon after his inauguration. Legislation will be required to secure the desired revenue, and Mr. McKinley will do everything in his power to secure it, as well as the legal establishment of a policy which will tend to put everybody at work. In all this he hopes and expects that he will be backed by patriotic men, regardless of party lines. As for myself, I am not a party man, and will endeavor to attend to private business affairs, which need my personal supervision."

Asked what Democrats of note he had talked with on the subject of the future, Mr. Hanna said: "I do not wish to name them all, but I many mention Messrs. W. C. Whitney and Abram S. Hewitt as examples."

DINNER TO REPORTERS.

Mark Hanna Entertains Newspaper Men at New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Mark A. Hanna gave a dinner to-night to the newspaper men who had regularly "covered" national headquarters either in New York or Chicago during the campaign. The dinner was served in the banquet hall at the Waldorf and it was an elaborate affair. The decorations were somewhat emblematic of the issues of the campaign, a little gold and silver ship being provided for each diner as a souvenir. There was also presented to each of the guests a gold medal the size of a twenty-dollar gold piece, with the name of the recipient and the fact that it was presented by the national committee inscribed on it, and also the words: "McKinley and Hobart, Sound Money and Protection."

Perry Heath, who had charge of the press bureau at Chicago, acted as toastmaster and sat at one end of the long table. At the other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the head of the bureau in New York. Mr. Hanna was at the middle of the table and opposite to him was Cornelius N. Bliss. Aside from these four men all of the diners were reporters. There were a few short speeches. Mr. Hanna leading off with a complimentary address to the reporters. The other end was Jules Guhrig, the